Our working needs are complex, and when it comes to working or communicating together, we shouldn't be confined to a single space. Workplace technology should be versatile and mobile so we can work anywhere in the office, and at any time.

Sharp's new Communicate & Collaborate range includes the Switch 45 height adjustable AV stand. Complete with our latest 65" 4K Ultra HD digital and tiltable display screen, the Switch can be safely moved with ease thanks to its wheeled based and easy locking system, letting you take the technology where it's needed.

The stands can be electronically height-adjusted and titled to a 45-degree angle. So whether you need a free standing screen in a meeting room, a work tool to aid with collaboration, or a digital signage display or way-finder, you can bring the content to your level. Simply plug in or connect via built-in wireless, and you're away.
